

Keep your access to unlimited audiobooks!

As you transition to college, access to audiobooks will be more important than ever. Don't lose access to your online bookshelf and continue receiving support and resources from Learning Ally!

Follow these simple steps:

1) Visit or call your college disability services department.

Ask if the campus has a Learning Ally membership and ask them to add you to the account and provide your username and password. If a campus membership is not available, show them the bottom portion of this flyer.

2) Sign up for an individual membership at LearningAlly.org.

Use promo code COMM20 to receive a discount for your first year of annual membership.

SHARE THIS PORTION WITH YOUR COLLEGE

PROVIDE YOUR STUDENTS WITH THE RESOURCES AND TOOLS
THEY NEED TO WORK INDEPENDENTLY AND SUCCEED!

Offering unlimited access to more than 80,000 audio textbooks and literature titles—featuring human narration, enhanced navigation, and STEM titles from all major textbook publishers—a Learning Ally membership gives students access to the content they need to succeed in school and beyond.

A quick phone call can bring Learning Ally into your school.

Call 800.221.1098 or email programs@LearningAlly.org.

LearningAlly.org/Educators

IF YOU ARE A STUDENT WHO IS BLIND OR VISUALLY IMPAIRED, visit LearningAlly.org/CollegeSuccess and join the College Success Program to gain access to mentors and be a part of Learning Ally's new research-based program designed to give students support throughout college.

Learning Ally
TOGETHER IT'S POSSIBLE