

SUPER SENTENCE ORGANIZATION CHART

NAME _____ DATE _____

DIRECTIONS

Take the following 3 simple sentences and use the chart below to super-size them! You should use a thesaurus and dictionary (either hard copy or online) to bulk up your sentences and make them extraordinary! Make sure you fill in each column for your sentences. See the example in blue for inspiration.

SIMPLE SENTENCE EXAMPLE: The boy ate.

SIMPLE SENTENCE #1: A girl played.

SIMPLE SENTENCE #2: Birds fly.

SIMPLE SENTENCE #3: The woman saw her.

	Article (A, the, an)	Adjective (describes the noun)	Noun (who or what in your sentence)	Verb (action word) + Adverb (describes verb, usually with -ly)	Where? When? What? Who? How or Why?
	The	hungry	boy	ate heartily	at lunchtime.
1.	A		girl	played
2.			Birds	fly
3.	The		woman	saw	her

Now, rewrite your 3 sentences to make super sentences:

1. _____

_____

2. _____

_____

3. _____

_____

SUPER SENTENCE ORGANIZATION CHART

---

BONUS ACTIVITY

Write a paragraph using one of the super sentences above as your first.

Create 2-3 additional sentences to support the first sentence and create a story.

Remember, make every sentence contain all the elements you see in the table above.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---